The Right Ons – Look Inside, Now!

The most American sounding Rock n' Roll band isn't from America -- The Right Ons, are in fact from Madrid, Spain - and sing entirely in English. Drawing heavily on the Detroit Garage Sound, as well as funk and soul from the 60's and 70's, the band's energetic live show has become legendary on the festival circuit in Spain.

"The quintet from Madrid, Spain is like a party in a box. They're well-studied students of the classic Detroit garage rock sound, with bits of Jimi Hendrix and Sly and the Family Stone thrown in as well. - TWANGVILLE

The band got together in 2006 and made their recording debut a year later with the record 80.81, named after the years that they were born. The Right Ons are: Alvaro Guzman (vocals, guitars), Rams Nieto (vocals, drums), Rafa Fernandez (guitars, vocals), Utah (bass, vocals), Martin Muniz (keyboards, percussion, vocals). The band has played nearly every festival in Spain, including Rock In Rio and Primavera Sound, and has toured with Reigning Sound, Ken Stringfellow, and The Bellrays, as well as an 8-week European tour supporting Eli "Paperboy" Reed & The True Loves.

"Live shows are our most effective weapon. We have played many gigs in all kind of conditions, and no matter if it's in a 4 person capacity dive bar, or a packed stadium, we play the same way every night... exploding when we go on stage, trying to blow people's minds." says frontman Guzman.

After the band toured the US in the fall of 2008, they went to Q Division Studios in Boston to make a record with producer Ed Valauskas (Eli "Paperboy" Reed & The True Loves). They tracked the entire record live in just two weeks and the result is Look Inside, Now!, available for the first time in the US. The record features guest appearances by members of The Figgs and the Click 5.

"This is something that was meant to happen. We came in 2008 to Q Division to record Look Inside, Now! and it felt like home. Actually, better than home in some aspects. Good professional, kind people, great equipment, 110 ac volts...and nobody there asked us, 'why don't you sing in Spanish?' which was refreshing." says Rams.

In March, The Right Ons come back to the US and Canada to promote the North American release of Look Inside, Now! (out on Q Division Records March 23) They will be playing at Canadian Music Week as well as making their 3rd consecutive appearance at SXSW.

"The Rights Ons turned up the dial. I heard traces of Led Zeppelin and the Stooges in their sound, though they were totally modern. Sort of like Jet if they were out of Madrid, their youthful energy set the tone." - BILLBOARD

"From track one to the end our feet couldn't stop." - ROLLING STONE

"Enormous riffs and groove with a style." - ESQUIRE
